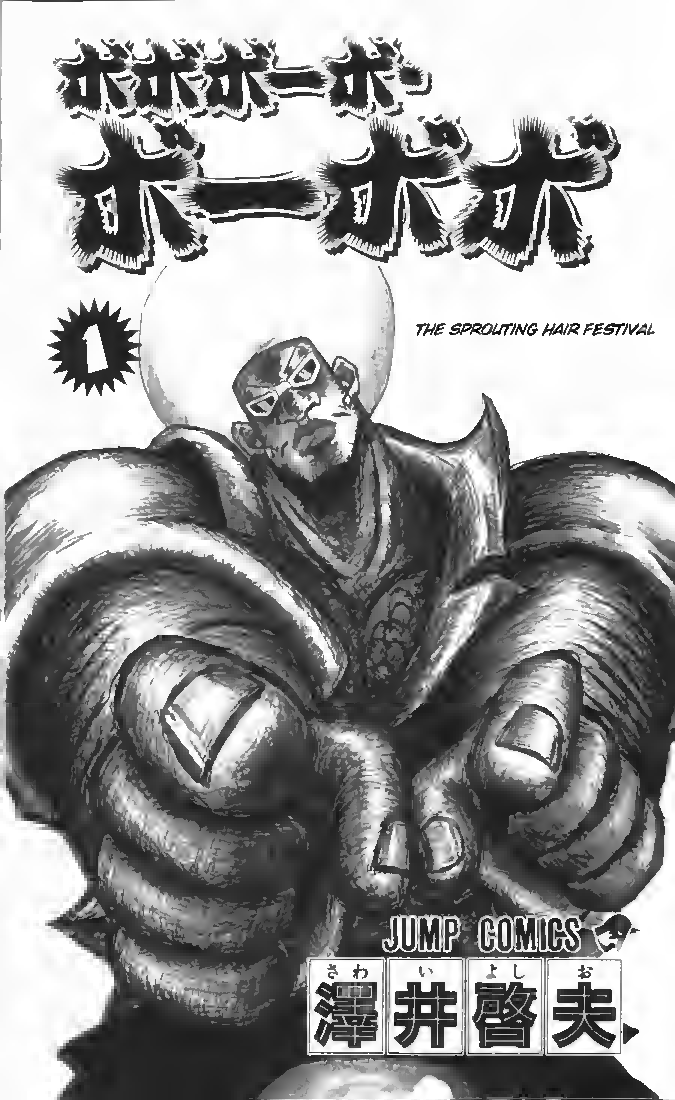
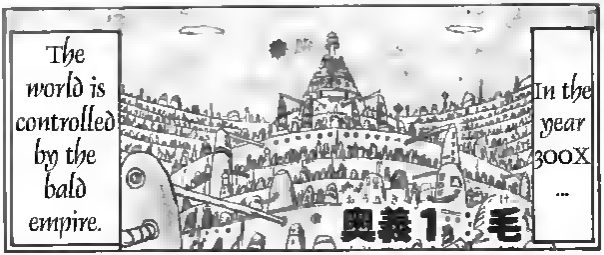
THE SPROUTING HAIR FESTIVAL

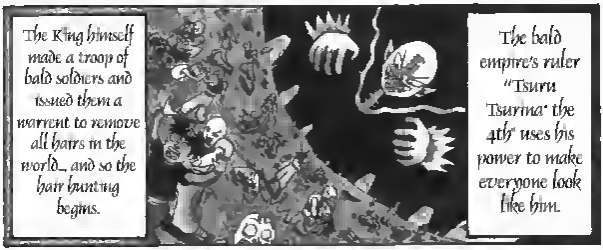


JUMP COMICS

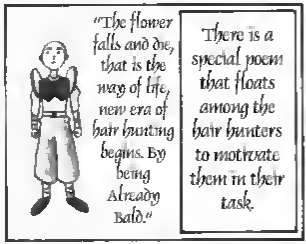
澤井啓夫



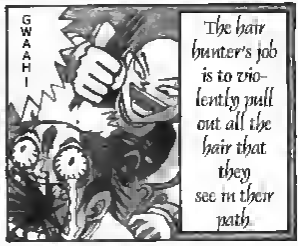
The world is controlled by the bald empire.
In the year 300X ...
奥義1、モ



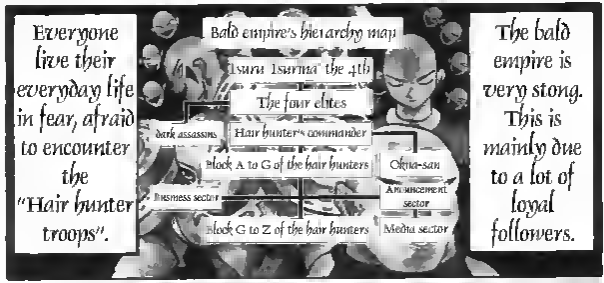
The King himself made a troop of bald soldiers and issued them a warrent to remove all hairs in the world... and so the hair hunting begins.
The bald empire's ruler "Tsuru Tsurina" the 4th' uses his power to make everyone look like him.



"The flower falls and die, that is the way of life, new era of hair hunting begins. By being Already Bald."
There is a special poem that floats among the hair hunters to motivate them in their task.



GWAAHI
The hair hunter's job is to violently pull out all the hair that they see in their path.



Everyone live their everyday life in fear, afraid to encounter the "Hair hunter troops".

The bald empire is very stong. This is mainly due to a lot of loyal followers.

But one man, that is brave enough, stood against them for the sake of freedom of hair and peace during that period.
